Watergate Sidelight

Former high-ranking presidential advis-or John Ehrlichman may not have emerged as the most savory character implicated in the televised morass known as the Watergate hearings. President Nixon's one-time confident couldn't be faulted for honesty when he told the senatorial inquisition and a viewing nation that there is little that can be considered "dirty pool" in the art of political campaigning.

The subject arose when Ehrlichman was being queried about the hiring of former New York policeman Anthony Ulasewicz, who told the hearing he investigated the sexwan both me iterating in interaggeet the 28% and habits, drinking problems, domestic difficulties, and personal social habits of Nix-on's political opponents. It may not sound nice over the net-works, but don't things like Britain's Pro-fumo affair and Canada's Munsinger scan-dal help topple governments?

Don't voters insist that their represent-atives lead impeccable private, as well as multi-likes?

How does one convince the man on the street that a chronic drinker could ever make a good judge, or that a member of parliament with extensive property holdings has more than his own best political interests at heart?

The public is not unreasonable, providing it hears the entire unabridged version of the story. New Democrat MP Frank Howard was not booted out of office when, to foil a blackmail attempt he issued a public statement informing that he had spent time in jail for a youthful misdemeanor.

Office break-ins and the use of electronle awasdropping are not justified in partisan publical campaigning dender of var sconizant of such sevents or not, the fact that the president of the United States, the most powerful man in the world, trusted men in its employ who condoner such acts makes him just as open for subile criticism as the felions who committed them.

Perhaps something more appropriate would give our girls a better shot at the title, say a few discreetly-positioned maple hoose?

Booming

The population explosion in Canada has been modest compared with the increase in the number of motor vehicles since the Second World War. In 1954 here were a scant 1.5 million cars, tracks and motorcycles in all Canads.

The total in 1977 was more than nice million.

IT'S ALMOST AS BIG AS A FOOTBALL FIELD

You have to see it to believe it! Over $4,000 in grand opening prizes.

The new Construction Safety Act

't makes a difference to you

Effective August 1st., Bill 127, The Construction Safety Act, 1973 places the responsibility for safety in the construction industry firmly where it belongs... on the whole construction industry. Not only on project constructors but on the whole construction industry. Not only on project constructors but also on sub-contractors, foremen and the workmen themselves.

Any of these, if convicted of an offence against the Actor its Regulations, is liable to a fine of up to $10,000 and imprisonment of up to 12 months. That's pretty tough, but it's neveryone's interest. Employers, employees and, not least, their families, all of whom stand to benefit from accident prevention.

prevention.

The new Bill also provides the following major advantages.

It consolidates the three existing statutes in the field into an allencompassing Act that can be more effectively administered.

It makes the Ontario Ministry of Labour primarily responsible for safety inspections, removing the obligation to appoint municipal inspectors and establishing basic standards throughout the Province.

And its improved regulations cover more situations than the old legislation, thereby increasing protective measures.

Everyone connected with construction has a vital stake in safety. Bill 127 will give that safety a better chance. The Ministry of Labour offices in your area have the details. Make sure you know where you stand after August 1st.

reasons why high school teachers are rigid ceiling on education budgets.

The ceiling, as applied under provincial direction, does not adequately take into account the varying needs of individual communities.

Minimum increases allowed under the ceiling last year (a mere 2.8 per cent) were more than cancelled out by inflation and the general rise in the cost-of-living index.

Because of the provincial ceiling, class sizes will increase this fell and, in some instances, the number of course options available to students will be restricted.

With larger classes less time will be available for class preparation and the marking and assessment of students' work.

And, with larger classes, teachers will have less time than ever before for the individual attention required by their students.

The quality of education available to students may well deteriorate this fall because of the ceiling on budgets.

To maintain educational excellence, teachers will find it necessary to concentrate their full efforts on classroom teaching.

This, in turn, means that voluntary services provided by secondary school teachers, such as sports, music, drama, and dancing may well he curtailed.

What is needed now is a realistic approach to the ceiling by the Provincial Government.

Responsible teachers are concerned about their communities and students

Helping you to a better understanding of nutrition

Joan Fielden Says...
In today busy life tyle it is difficult to be sure every member of the family is well-fed.
Therefore, it is important to select a varied diet: one which includes nutritionally valuable finits and vejetables—enriched and whole grain cereal products, meats and milk and moderation in other foods. For more information write Joan Fielden-P.O. Box 35, Station W, TORONTO 15, Ontario.

Singing Jamaican

Jamaican workers have been returning to help Quinte orchardsmen harvest their crops for five successive years. Among them is Rupert Pil-lington who says he looks forward to the trip back to Canada.

Harvest Swings With Calypso Music

Applie pickers from Jamaica have a way of making hard work appear easy. Canadian coun-terparts report the time goes faster and there's less monotony when listening to the native songs lilting through the trees. Local picker Steve Dortator, on tractor works with Jamaican Albert Cousin on ladder in the background.

Umbrella for Two

It's nice to share things, but even nices when you have an umbrella big enough for two to keep dry when it rains. These two girls, Beth Shorey, left and Cathy Lebow, were spotted at the market this morning keeping high and dry with an umbrella that would have kept them cool and shady had it been hot today.

Cramped His Style

Local farmers and growers who sell their produce at the market have mixed feelings when-ever it rains. On the one hand the rain is good for their crops. But it is bad for selling them.

Casey Mastin shows that the best place to be when it rained today was in the back trunk of his car where it was cramped but dry.

What is `Self-Help

Answer: 'SELF-HELP' IS A CAREFULLY DESIGNED PLAN WHEREBY YOU CAN PURCHASE A HOME OF YOUR OWN WITH NO DOWN PAYMENT ... AT A PRICE FAR LOWER THAN YOU THINK.

Rollins Lumber realizes that many families lack the capital to step into the expensive real estate on the market today. The plan offers an alternative to these people who want to establish a secure future, and at the same time get out from under constantly rising rental payments.

It's a simple plan that lowers the cost of building substantially by allowing you to do the interior work yourself. Rollins Lumber's expert workmen will erect the shell and provide top quality materials for the home's interior. You take over from there and gain a lot of satisfaction and big savings by contributing your own labor to the project.

ACT NOW! CONTACT THE SELF-HELP EXPERTS GEORGE MILLS or DAVE MARVIN right away and get started while mort-gage money is available. Take a look at our selection of ready-to-build designs including "THE FONTABERRY" - a 3 bedroom, distinctive design . . . Self-Help priced at only $7038. (Price includes the shell erected and materials supplied for the home's interior).

If you were in Canada by November 30, 1972, and have remained here since, as a visitor or without legal status, these are the things you gai make our country your country.

You won't be penalized because you entered or remained in Canada illegally.

You gain the opportunity to apply during a period of relaxed rules. You could qualify to become a landed immigrant if you meet any one of the following criteria—if you have a job or the prospect of a job—if you have does family relationships in Canada—if you have made an effort to improve your qualifications—or, if you can present any other evidence that you canadapt to life in Canada.

If you don't make it, even under the easy rules, you retain your important right to appeal the decision to an independent appeal board.

If you make it, you will eventually have the right to apply for Canadian citizenship, which gives you the vote.

Once you become a citizen, you may travel throughout the world on a Canadian passport.

As soon as you are landed, you may claim all the rights of a permanent Canadian resident, and will have every chance to work towards better job opportunities.

You gain freedom from the constant fear of discovery, and need no longer look over your shoulder everywh you go, or think twice about everything you do.

You gain the opportunity to participate fully in the life of the country.

These are the things you lose if you don't apply for landed nmigrant status before midnight, October 15, 1973.

You will lose forever the opportunity to become a landed immigrant by applying from within Canada.

You lose the right to appeal a future deportation order to an independent appeal board.

You may lose the chance of coming back to Canada if you visit your homeland again. Which means that you might have sen your friends and relatives in Canada for the last time.

You will never have the right to vote in Canada.

You may lose chances for job advancement, because you can't take the risk that someone will find out about you.

You may be exploited by unscrupulous employers, and kept at an unfair wage level because you can't afford to complain.

You lose your peace of mind, because after midnight, October 15, 1973, you will again be subject to prosecution if you entered or remained in Canada illegally.

You lose the opportunities that should be open to all in this rich and growing country.

We want you to have all these things. Until midnight, October 15, we're going to make it easy for you to make our country your country.

For further information, phone, write, or visit your nearest Canada Immigration Centre, or, if there isn't one near you, your nearest Canada Manpower Centre. (Services given by Canadian Immigration Officers are free.)

Eanada Immigration Centres are open to receive applications weekdays from 8:00 am to 8:00 pm and Saturdays from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm, and from 8:00 am to midnight Monday,

"Heart of the people! Workingmen! Marrow and nerve of human powers... who on their sturdy backs sustain... through streaming 'time... this world of ours..." Today, we pause to pay tribute to the working force of Canada... the people whose labor and care through the years have made our country great. We honor our progress - builders...

earth-movers, energy-maakers...who transformed a wilderness into a land of production and plenty. They are, and always have been our principal natural resource... the lifestream of the nation. Today we thank them for knowing that work is love made visible.
